

with/out reservation

by Rudi Gremels

i crave to feel your hands on my body
and mine on yours
whoever you might be.

i think what i crave most are consecutive moments of presence uninterrupted by thoughts or fears
or extrapolations into a hypothetical future.

consecutive moments
that allow our hands to explore
with/out reservation.

He captures natural phenomena in an elegant, authentic & reverent light. Gracefully translating momentary experiences into timeless & emotive art, he seeks to foster a deeper sense of connection within his viewer – both with the world, and with themselves.
